

Denise R. Mitchell, MPA
Tax Commissioner

MEDIA RELEASE

Collins Appointed Chief Deputy Tax Commissioner in Gwinnett

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ga., July 18, 2023—Gwinnett County Tax Commissioner Denise R. Mitchell has appointed Jeremy M. Collins as chief deputy tax commissioner. Collins has served as the property tax director for the Gwinnett County Tax Commissioner’s Office since 2022. He replaces Lisa Matic, who retired from the position after attaining progressively responsible positions with the GCTC.

Collins will oversee the day-to-day operations of the office. His responsibilities will include monitoring customer service, overseeing budgets and contracts, and administrating internal controls and audits.

A graduate of the Georgia Institute of Technology, he began working at the GCTC in 2011.

“Collins brings extensive experience to the position from both the property tax and motor vehicle division,” Mitchell said. “I am confident he will continue to serve the citizens well.”

In 2016, Collins served as manager of property tax prior to serving as director of the division. In both roles he was primarily responsible for billing property tax for the county.

Collins worked in management for over 20 years in the private sector in Atlanta before joining the GCTC.

About the Gwinnett County Tax Commissioner

Gwinnett County Tax Commissioner Denise R. Mitchell, MPA, was appointed to the office May 6, 2022. The Tax Commissioner is a constitutionally elected official responsible to bill, collect and disburse $1.9 billion in personal and property taxes and to administer homestead exemptions for the nearly one million Gwinnett County residents. Serving also as an agent for the state of Georgia, the tax commissioner registers and titles motor vehicles and disburses associated revenue. Learn more at www.gwinnetttaxcommissioner.com

###