MEDIA RELEASE

Lisa Matic Appointed Gwinnett County Chief Deputy Tax Commissioner

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LAWRENCEVILLE, Ga., May. 16, 2022 – Tax Commissioner Denise R. Mitchell, MPA, today appointed Lisa Matic as Gwinnett County Chief Deputy Tax Commissioner.

“Ms. Matic has more than 20 years of experience with our office and possesses expertise in both motor vehicle and property tax,” Mitchell said. “She has a reputation for being proactive and extremely knowledgeable about the laws, rules and regulations that govern the operations of this office. I know she will admirably serve the citizens of Gwinnett County.”

Matic joined the Gwinnett Tax Commissioner’s Office in 2002 and had been serving since Feb. 2021 as the director of property tax. She has held progressively responsible positions, beginning her career as an assistant manager, then being promoted to branch manager, senior tax business manager at the Lawrenceville tag office, then senior tax business manager in charge of delinquent collections.

Matic earned a Bachelor’s degree in Business Administration with a concentration in Management from Columbia Southern University, and is a graduate of Gwinnett County’s LEAD Academy and the EXCEL Leadership Program.

About the Gwinnett County Tax Commissioner

Gwinnett County Tax Commissioner Denise R. Mitchell, MPA, was appointed to the office May 6, 2022. The Tax Commissioner is a constitutionally-elected official responsible to bill, collect and disburse $1.5 billion in personal and property taxes and to administer homestead exemptions for the nearly one million Gwinnett County residents. Serving also as an agent for the state of Georgia, the tax commissioner registers and titles motor vehicles and disburses associated revenue. Learn more at GwinnettTaxCommissioner.com.
